

Integration

Within the framework of integration, functionality is provided for integrating the system with various external services and resources, which help enhance its functionality and efficiency. Various settings and detailed information are available here. This feature can be accessed under Management - Integration.

The following sections are presented: network storage, Trend Micro integration, ICAP server.

Edit this page